Notes on Professional Designations

 Chartered Financial Analyst designation:

To earn a CFA charter, you must have four years of qualified investment work experience, become a member of CFA Institute, pledge to adhere to the CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct on an annual basis, apply for membership to a local CFA member society, and complete the CFA Program. The CFA Program is organized into three levels, each culminating in a six-hour exam. Completing the Program takes most candidates between two and five years.

 Certified Financial Planner™ designation:

The Certified Financial Planner™ mark is a voluntary and professional certification granted by the Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. Currently, more than 62,000 individuals have obtained CFP® certification in the United States. Individuals who become certified must complete the ongoing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP® marks.
